Quick to discern the trend of the public's mind in matters theatrical, Manager Jules Murry scoured the play markets of the world last summer for a modern drama for his gifted young star, Creston Clarke. Nothing at all promising was in sight until his attention was drawn to the interest that was being manifested by the English reading public in a forthcoming work of that promising author, George Paston, entitled "The Ragged Messenger." An emissary was despatched post-haste across to London by Manager Murry, and even before "The Ragged Messenger" had appeared in book form on the other side, the rights to its dramatization had been secured by this enterprising manager. The rest is theatrical history. "The Ragged Messenger" is one of the biggest hits of the season. It will be presented at the opera house on Saturday evening, Oct. 11 with Creston Clarke in the modern role of John Morton, the clergyman.

RACED IN A DRIZZLE.

Nut Boy Won, Chiefly Due to Myron McHenry's Driving.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 6.—Nut Boy, heavily backed by the New England contingent, won the eighteenth Transylvania stake in a drizzling rain yesterday, defeating the best field of aged trotting horses that had been brought together this year. Much of the ease with which the son of Nutpine defeated his large field was due to the generalship of Myron McHenry. The pacing division of the Kentucky futurity fell to Brenda York, without a struggle. The race merely was a workout for the good Moko filly and she would have won in much better time had it been asked of her.

The 8:15 class trotting was postponed on account of a rain which came up during the last heat of the futurity.

OPENING FALL SALE

AND

Exposition of the New Modes for the Season at Hand.

Saturday, October 6th, will mark the opening of Fall and Winter business. At this time our complete showing of Fall models will be on parade for inspection.

For those wanting the more exclusive fabrics it is advisable to make selections early in the season, and we invite the interest of those who desire the widest range of selection.

The prominent feature in Business Suits is the form fitting back with flared skirts. In some styles this is pronounced, and in others only moderately so.

The same style prevails in Overcoats. Business coats are moderately long. In Overcoats one may wear a style 45 or 50 inches long, or some length between the two, and any of them will be correct.

We have a very wide range of fabrics this season, as well as the correct new styles, and we may say that we have never shown an assortment more pleasing in every respect, than we now present for your consideration.

Sincerity Suits from	$10.00 to $22.00
Sincerity Overcoats from	10.00 to 22.00
Other Suits from	5.00 to 22.00
